Martin Hood LLC Announces Three New Partners Effective October 2020

Champaign, Illinois | September 21, 2020

Martin Hood LLC is extremely pleased to announce that as of October 1, 2020, three Senior Tax Managers will be promoted to partner: Mandy DeJarnette, Dae-Woung Kang, and Rachelle Parn.

Mandy DeJarnette has been with Martin Hood since 2006 after graduating with highest honors from the University of Illinois with her Masters in Taxation in 2004. She specializes in comprehensive tax services for businesses and individuals. She lives just outside Champaign-Urbana with her family.

Dae Kang graduated from the University of Illinois in 2001 with degrees in Accounting and Finance and has been at the firm since 2002. Dae specializes in tax compliance, planning, and consulting for individuals and businesses, including non-profit organizations. He lives in Champaign with his family.

Rachelle Parn joined Martin Hood in 2019 as a Senior Manager after spending twenty years at a global accounting firm. She graduated from Millikin University in 1996. Rachelle specializes in tax compliance, planning, and consulting for individuals and businesses. She lives in Tremont with her family.

Since its founding in 1982, the firm has grown from three partners to ten as it expands its reach throughout Illinois and beyond. In total, Martin Hood now has over 60 professional and administrative staff.

Managing Partner Dave Hood expressed his excitement about the promotions and the direction of the firm. "It's a fantastic feeling to see the next generation of leadership at Martin Hood reach this level. I can't wait to watch these new partners flourish."

Martin Hood spans two buildings at 2507 S. Neil Street and 2509 S. Neil Street in Champaign.
